This is a history and genealogy of ten generations of Medbury-Medbery-Medberry Families in America. They are descendants of JOHN MEDBURY, who was first of the name in this country, having emigrated from Wales. Old records say he was from Modbury Parish on the border between Devonshire, England and Wales, and that he was living in Swansea, Massachusetts 1680, and perhaps earlier. Swansea, Mass. was named for Swansea, Wales. There is now a small village in S.W. England called Medbery. Perhaps this is the area John left almost three hundred years ago.

The men and women accounted for are from two of John's sons--Thomas and Nathaniel. The present-day families are living in all parts of the United States.

I call this a history as well as a genealogy, because it shows the activities of these sons and daughters; their help in opening up and settling new territories; their participation in civic, church, and military affairs; their greatly diversified occupations, covering the needs of a community.

The spelling of the name varies, and I have used the form as found in records, and for later generations, as the family now spells it.

I have had a wide correspondence with Medburys, Medbury wives, and some cases, Medbury grandchildren. Without their generous help I could never have found much of the information contained here, and to them I extend my sincere "Thank you".

The gathering together of these records has been a most rewarding project, and so to the one responsible--my husband, James Francis Medbery, I give this record of his family.

Elizabeth Ann Medbery

FIRST GENERATION

1. JOHN[1] MEDBURY. Born Wales, died Swansea, Mass April 27, 1694. Married 1680 Sarah. She m 2nd 1696 Israel Harding, and had daughter, Lydia. Harding.

The first record found of John in America shows him living in Swansea, Mass. 1680. In a Quit Claim Deed of Wm Bradford July 23, 1689 to inhabitants and Proprietors of Swansea, is the name .....Medbury as an inhabitant within the township of Swansea. Another Quit Claim Deed of Wm Bradford Dec 26, 1689 mentions the house of John Medbury. In Book A, Records of Swansea 1662-1705 are names and dates of birth of children as listed below (except for Benjamin). The first two are registered as children of John; others as of John and Sarah. This book also gives dates of death of John and Ebenezer. Settlement of his estate Nov 6, 1694 names wife, Sarah, the four sons, and two daughters, Hannah and Sarah. In 1700 Israel Harding, husband of Sarah Medbury, bought land owned by John Medbury of Swansea. Records mention his step-sons, Thomas and Nathaniel Medbury, and own daughter, Lydia. On Nov 20, 1711 Israel and wife were living in Warwick, R.I.
